UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

SERIAL NO: 77411069

MARK: THE STOKED

*77411069***

CORRESPONDENT ADDRESS:

LISA N. KAUFMAN
OFFICE OF LISA N. KAUFMAN
2807 POINCIANA CIRCLE
COOPER CITY, FL 33026

GENERAL TRADEMARK INFORMATION:
<http://www.uspto.gov/main/trademarks.htm>

APPLICANT: Ron Jon Surf Shop of Fla., Inc.

CORRESPONDENT'S REFERENCE/DOCKET
NO:

RJ Museum

CORRESPONDENT E-MAIL ADDRESS:
lnktm@hotmail.com

REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION DENIED

ISSUE/MAILING DATE: 10/13/2010

Applicant is requesting reconsideration of a final refusal issued/mailed February 28, 2010.

After careful consideration of the law and facts of the case, the examining attorney must deny the request for reconsideration and adhere to the final action as written, with respect to Classes 18, 25 and 35, since no new facts or reasons have been presented that are significant and compelling with regard to the point at issue. The examining attorney has determined, however, that the refusal to register is withdrawn with respect to Classes 6 and 9, only.

Applicant has amended the identification of goods by restricting the channel of trade. However, this restriction does not obviate a likelihood of confusion in this case. If the cited registrations contain no limitations as to their channels of trade or classes of purchasers, then it is presumed that the registrant's goods move in all normal channels of trade and that they are available to all potential customers. In re Linkvest S.A., 24 USPQ2d 1716, 1716 (TTAB 1992); In re Elbaum, 211 USPQ 639, 640 (TTAB 1981); TMEP §1207.01(a)(iii). In this case, registrants' goods contain no limitations as to their channels of trade and may be sold anywhere, including applicant's museum stores. The examining attorney attaches internet evidence which demonstrates that it is common for the retail store of a museum to sell goods other than promotional items for the museum, itself. See attached web pages from the online stores of The Phillips Collection, The Museum of Modern Art, The Art Institute of Chicago, The Museum of Fine Arts, Boston and The Field Museum. In each case, the museum sells jewelry, clothing and a variety of bags that are not promoting the particular museum. In fact, in most cases, these goods are manufactured by third parties and sold by the museum stores.

Accordingly, applicant's request for reconsideration is denied with respect to Classes 18, 25 and 35. The time for appeal runs from the date the final action was issued/mailed. 37 C.F.R. §2.64(b); TMEP §715.03(c). If applicant has already filed a timely notice of appeal, the application will be forwarded to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board (TTAB).

/Wendy B. Goodman, Esq./
Trademark Attorney
Law Office 109
(571) 272-9276 (phone)
wendy.goodman@uspto.gov

STATUS CHECK: Check the status of the application at least once every six months from the initial filing date using the USPTO Trademark Applications and Registrations Retrieval (TARR) online system at <http://tarr.uspto.gov>. When conducting an online status check, print and maintain a copy of the complete TARR screen. If the status of your application has not changed for more than six months, please contact the assigned examining attorney.

Sullivan Tote

Artist: Louis Sullivan

Whether your market is Wall Street or the local grocery, this elegant tote brightens any day. Our printed design is adapted from Louis Sullivan's (American, 1856–1924) day. Our printed design is adapted from Louis Sullivan's (American, 1856-1924) stencils that ornamented the Trading Room of the Chicago Stock Exchange, reconstructed at the museum in 1977. This durable poly/nylon reversible tote with magnetic closure and a zippered interior pocket reverses to a deep warm green if you prefer.

17" x 12".

Guatemalan Handwoven Tote Bag

Browse by Category / One of a Kind / Personal Ornaments

Mayan weavers have traditionally used back strap looms to create intricately patterned fabric for woman's traditional blouses known as huipils. Contemporary Guatemalan artisans use great patience and skill to weave fabric for our Guatemalan tote bag, which measures 14" tall x 16" wide.

Features Velcro closure, full lining and an interior pocket.

Diego Rivera Tie
Browse by Category / Adult Apparel / Accessories

Diego Rivera, the world famous artist and husband to Frida Kahlo, helped establish the Mexican Mural Renaissance with his large wall frescoes painted between 1922 and 1953.

His iconic painting Dia de la Flor from 1925 is beautifully depicted here on our 100% silk hand made tie from Mexico.
